

Born in the Soviet Union, Michael Korn received musical training as a violinist in Novosibirsk, at the Gnessin Institute in Moscow and at the University of Tel-Aviv in Israel. Since moving to the U.S. in 1997, Mr. Korn has been a member of the Alabama

Symphony Orchestra and a founding member of the critically acclaimed Chagall Trio. He was the founder and music director of String Summit, the first youth chamber music festival in Alabama.

Mr. Korn has performed as a soloist with orchestras and in recitals, and chamber music in the former Soviet Union, Europe, Africa, and the United States. He serves as a music director and conductor of the Waltham Philharmonic Orchestra and the Sharon Chamber Community Orchestra as well as a faculty member of the Community Music Center of Boston and at the Boston Arts Academy Strings Outreach Program where he teaches violin, viola and string ensembles. In addition, Mr. Korn performs in the Boston area with the Boston Classical Orchestra, as well as chamber music, and solo recitals.

The Waltham Philharmonic Orchestra, a civic symphony of the MetroWest area, began in 1985 under the direction of local musicians David J. Tierney and Harold W. McSwain, Jr. Comprised of almost 50 professional, semi-professional, and amateur musicians, the orchestra's mission is to provide Waltham and the surrounding community with the opportunity to perform in and attend classical concerts of the highest quality. WPO musicians come from Waltham as well as from Boston and the MetroWest area. The ensemble includes players of a wide range of ages and professions. The WPO is available to perform for private concerts; in addition, the orchestra's Chamber Players can be hired for business or social functions.

The WPO Board of Directors in conjunction with WPO members determines its management. We welcome volunteers to assist with the operations of the orchestra. We also welcome inquiries about joining the Board of Directors. For more information, e-mail the board president at admin@wphil.org, or speak with any WPO member about your interest.
